(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) The deployment of Central Para Military Forces in any State depends upon the over all security scenario and the availability of these Forces. Keeping in view these constraints, Central Para Military Forces have been made available to Government of Bihar to the extent possible.

Opposition to New Anti-Terrorism Law

1122. SHRI NARENDRA MOHAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that terrorism-affected States deperately want a new anti-terrorism law that is also fair, in place of TADA;

(b) whether the Human Rights Groups and social activists are opposing another so-called draconian measure that is suspected to arm police to detain innocent people without proper trial or chargd; and

(c) if so, whether any efforts are being made to harmonise security measures with civil liberties?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) There is a general agreement among the different State Governments on the need to enact a suitable law to combat terrorism.

(b) and (c) The Law Commission of India has submitted the Draft Prevention of Terrorism Bill, 2000 which seeks to provide law enforcement agencies with suitable powers to effectively deal with the growing menace of terrorism. Apprehension have been expressed in different quarters relating to possible misuse of various provisions in the Bill and violation of human rights. The Government has invited the views of all the State Govemments/UTs on various provisions of the Bill. Government will also hold consultations with political parties, other groups etc. before a decision is taken in the matter.
